Rock Star Reception

Have you ever dreamed that Elton John would serenade you with "Your Song" as you walk down the aisle or that Beyoncé would break into "Bootylicious" at your reception? Well, that dream could become reality—assuming you've got deep pockets. Big stars are now performing at weddings, for the right price. Erik Marshall of Hank Lane Music and Productions in New York says that virtually any artist, from Billy Joel to Neil Sedaka, could be available to entertain your guests. The catch, not surprisingly, is the cost: Marshall says that prices start at about $25,000 and can exceed $1 million. Ouch. —Cristi L. Hansen
